

Students to Curate "Art of Mount Tamalpais" Exhibit

The Opening Reception is scheduled for Sunday, November 16, from 5-7 p.m. "The Art of Mount Tamalpais" will be on display through December 19 during normal library hours.

Zegart, a printmaker, has had a distinguished career as an artist, poet, and art teacher notably at Tamalpais High School in Mill Valley. She has inspired many students to pursue their creative interests. This exhibit includes a number of her copper engravings featuring Mount Tamalpais from different angles and creative perspectives.

Horacek, a painter, specializes in realistic landscape scenes. Her work is regularly featured in the annual Marinscapes shows. She has created a number of small and larger oil paintings of Mount Tamalpais specifically for this current exhibition.
