One of the most influential and celebrated artists of all time, Santana has won 10 Grammy awards, including a record-tying nine for a single project, 1999's Supernatural. He also has won three Latin Grammy awards. He has been honored at the Kennedy Center, inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and been given a Lifetime Achievement Award at Billboard's Latin Music Awards.

This year, with the release of his first-ever Latin Music album Corazon, Santana surpassed The Rolling Stones and joined Barbra Streisand as the only two music acts in Billboard history to score at least one Top 10 album for six consecutive decades.

Santana's performing career has spanned Woodstock in 1969 to the World Series in 2014 where he and his son, Salvador, played "The Star-Spangled Banner" before Game 4 at AT&T Park. Recently, Santana has been performing at the House of Blues at the Mandalay Bay in Las Vegas.

The Universal Tone is a profoundly inspiring tale of divine inspiration and musical fearlessness that does not balk at finding the humor in the world of high-flying fame. It speaks plainly of Santana's personal revelations and the infinite possibilities he sees in each person he meets.

The speaker series, a cooperative effort between Dominican's Institute for Leadership Studies and Book Passage, features some of the country's leading figures in the field of business, politics, entertainment, academia, and literature.
