

Pulitzer Prize-winning Kidder speaks in fall lecture series

Pulitzer Prize-winning author Tracy Kidder spoke in the Institute for Leadership Studies' Fall Leadership Lecture Series in partnership with Book Passage at Dominican University of California on September 28.

Kidder, author of 10 books—including his award-winning bestseller The Soul of the New Machine —came to Dominican with his new book, A Truck Full of Money: One Man's Quest to Recover From Great Success. It is the biography of Kayak.com founder and American maverick Paul M. English, who was once called “the Pied Piper of geeks.”

To purchase A Truck Full of Money or for more information, contact Book Passage in Corte Madera by calling (415) 927-0960 extension 1 or by visiting bookpassage.com/dominican. Tickets to his appearance at Dominican were $35 and included an autographed copy of A Truck Full of Money.

The speaker series, a cooperative effort between Dominican's Institute for Leadership Studies and Book Passage, features some of the country's leading figures from the worlds of business, politics, entertainment, academia, and literature. The series has entertained and educated thousands of Marin County and San Francisco Bay Area residents.

All events are open to the public. Free parking is available on campus in the nearby Conlan Center parking lot at the intersection of Acacia and Grand Avenues in San Rafael.

The Institute for Leadership Studies' Fall 2016 Leadership Lecture Series is sponsored by Private Ocean, the oldest and largest privately-held wealth management firm in Marin County. Private Ocean's commitment to community service has been a driving force behind its support of the lecture series.
